

OZONE INJECTION SYSTEMS SERIES: OIS

The ozone injection systems of series OIS are compact skid-mounted units. They are available in several capacities and materials for all ozone applications, which require effective injection of ozone into the water to be treated. Dimension and capacity of pump, ventury injector and piping are individually selected to meet the requirements of ozone generator capacity, pressure of water treatment system.